Disclaimer: Honoring Artists, Models, and Photographers
At My Tattoo Inc., & Woba Models we take pride in showcasing the incredible talent of models, artists, and photographers within our magazine. We strive to credit everyone associated with the artwork we feature, both in our publications and across our social media platforms. Please note that we do not sell the work of these talented individuals.
Our magazine operates on a non-profit basis and is provided free of charge to readers around the world, as our mission is to celebrate and promote the art of tattooing and the creative community.
If you have any concerns regarding the use of your image or work, we encourage you to contact us. We value your contributions and are committed to making any necessary adjustments, including removing or replacing your picture as needed. This flexibility is one of the many advantages of a digital magazine, allowing us to ensure that all artists are represented in a manner that aligns with their wishes.
Thank you for your understanding and for being part of our vibrant tattoo community.

Meet Tiffany Valentine: The Inked Muse and Ambassador for My Tattoo Inc.

RICH HARRIS

PLEASE, TELL US ABOUT YOUR CURRENT TATTOO STYLE AND HOW IT HAS CHANGED OVER THE YEARS.
- IT CURRENTLY HAS A MIX OF REALISM, GRAPHIC, LINE WORK, VIBRANT COLOURS AND A TOUCH OF ABSTRACT. I JUST PUT IN WHATEVER I ENJOY OR INSPIRES ME THE MOST AT THE TIME

I GUESS IT'S EVOLVED FROM MANY INFLUENCES I'VE SURROUNDED MYSELF WITH OVER THE YEARS, ARTISTS I FOLLOW ON SOCIAL MEDIA, ARTISTS I TRAVEL TO GET WORK FROM, ARTISTS I COLLABORATE WITH, GENERALLY EVERY DAY LIFE, TRAVEL AND PEOPLE I MEET.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHAT WAS THE FIRST TATTOO YOU DID? IF SO, TELL US WHAT IT WAS AND FOR WHO.
- THE FIRST TATTOO I DID WAS AT MY FRIENDS HOUSE ON HIM, I WAS PETRIFIED, I MADE A VERY WONKY STAR ON HIS LEG.

WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS AND DREAMS? IF YOU THINK ABOUT YOURSELF IN 10 YEARS, WHAT DO YOU SEE?
- I'LL BE LIVING IN IBIZA THEN, MAYBE A LITTLE DARK HORSE STUDIO IN THE MOUNTAINS, CREATING OIL PAINTINGS, MUSIC, AND THE ODD TATTOO.

DOES ANYONE OR ANYTHING INSPIRE YOU?
- DEFINITELY, I GET INSPIRED VERY EASILY. AS SOON AS I STARTED MY APPRENTICESHIP, MY PRIORITY WAS TO GET TATTOOED BY MY FAVORITE ARTISTS AND TO LEARN FROM THEM. WATCHING THEM TATTOO, THEIR DESIGN PROCESS, ASKING QUESTIONS, TAKING THEIR ADVISE. FROM THAT EXPERIENCE AND BEING AROUND THAT CALIBRE OF ARTIST ALONG WITH ALL THE STUDIOS I VISITED, REALLY OPENED MY MIND WHAT I COULD ACHIEVE WITH A LOT OF HARD WORK.

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN TATTOOING AND HOW DID YOU START YOUR TATTOOING JOURNEY?

– I'VE ALWAYS BEEN REALLY BAD WITH DATES BUT I WOULD SAY I STARTED AROUND THE SUMMER OF 2012, BUT TATTOOING PROFESSIONALLY IN SEPTEMBER OF 2014. I COULDN'T FIND AN APPRENTICESHIP SO I DECIDED TO GO TO ART SCHOOL. WHILE I WAS IN SCHOOL I STARTED TO PRACTICE ON SOME OF MY FRIENDS AND AFTER SOME SEMINARS WITH SOME OF MY FAVORITE TATTOOERS, I USED WHAT I LEARNED IN ART SCHOOL TO CREATE A PORTFOLIO.

ANY ARTIST YOU PLANNING TO GET TATTOOED BY? WHO HAS TATTOOED YOU ALREADY?

I'M RUNNING OUT OF SPACE IF I HAVE TO BE HONEST BUT I HAVE ANOTHER SESSION OF MY BACK PIECE COMING UP. I'M GETTING A COLLABORATION BETWE MIKE MOSES AND EMMANUEL MENDOZA.

Inked Tabu: When Black Isn’t Enough

In a world where fashion often follows predictable rules, Inked Tabu stands out as a bold celebration of individuality, strength, and fearless self-expression. This Instagram account is dedicated solely to showcasing inked ladies who don’t just wear their tattoos—they wear their power, their stories, and their style with unapologetic confidence.

With its compelling motto, “When black isn’t enough,” Inked Tabu embraces the idea that fashion and self-expression go well beyond traditional limits. Black clothing has long been considered the epitome of style, mystery, and elegance, but the women featured here prove that sometimes, even black is just the beginning. Their outfits are powerful, edgy, and boundary-pushing—just like the tattoos they wear with pride.
